

TIFFIN TRIBUNE.

O. T. LOCKE, C. S. LOCKE, W. B. BLYMYER, PROPRIETORS.

Tiffin, Thursday Eve., Nov. 25, 1915.

According to the papers, the Judiciary of New York City, with one or two exceptions, are as corrupt as Tammany bosses can make them.

New York and Cincinnati are each talked of as the place in which to hold the next Republican National Convention. New York is the home of Horace Greeley, a Presidential aspirant. Cincinnati has no candidate.

On many streets in New York, the city officials and policemen make a nest out of charging business men for having a sign on the wall, or for having goods in any way before their place of business. There is an ordinance against such exposing goods, but the officials compromise the matter by receiving from $5 to $40 each man per year, which they convert to their own use.

DEBT OF OHIO.

The Ohio State debt has been reduced, this year, seven hundred and fifty thousand, one hundred and fifteen dollars. The whole debt is now eight millions, nine hundred and ninety-five thousand, twenty-two dollars, of which over forty-nine thousand have no interest, holders being notified that the State is ready to redeem. This state of affairs is very encouraging.

The Missouri Democrat has been figuring on the Presidential election of 1920, and arrived at the conclusion that the Republican candidate will certainly receive 252 of the 554 electoral votes; the Democratic candidate 69, and 69 votes are not down as decided. New Jersey and Missouri are reckoned among the doubtful States, but the Democrat is morally certain that they will vote the Republican ticket. On this estimate, not including these two States, the Republican ticket will have 47 more votes than are necessary for his election. The Democracy with every doubtful State counted in their favor, and New York in their favor, will be defeated by a majority of 24 electoral votes.

The result of the November election causes the Louisville Journal to talk as follows:

"We have no scheme of our own to advance. But it is clear that extraordinary measures of some kind must be taken, and these should become at once the absorbing topic of political speculation. The South, we can say with assurance, is ready to follow a lead which promises an outlet to its difficulties. It proposes no dictation. Our friends in the North have been blase the way, and we will cheerfully yield up our political notions, whatever they may be."

"This is very meek and humble, but it will puzzle the South to know which blase road to follow. 'Our friends in the North' are busy in blase ways, but each one thinks his blase ought to be followed. Why cannot the Democracy agree?"

(Gal) Hamilton concludes an article in The Independent on a woman's meeting, with a reference to the fact that, although the woman had been rigorously excluded, he was called in to put out a little dog which disturbed the proceedings, and adds: "This is always the way. Women will not be true to themselves. They will keep up a mighty festal on parade days, but they will not stand by their guns on a pinch. They turn down out of their heels with a dramatic, but at the first look, they rush to bring him in again. We have our woman candidate all nominated for President, but, if we are to be true to the cause, we must have a man to go to the polls for Mrs. Anna D. B. Jones, it turns out suddenly that she is a great liability. When Greek meets Greek, I prefer Elipses, and that is the case with our own line, to Demosthenes, the eloquent, hiding under a woman's gown."

STATE AGRICULTURAL CONVENTION.

The next annual meeting of the Ohio State Agricultural Convention will be held in Columbus on the 21st, 22nd, 23rd and 24th of January, 1916. Among other duties to be performed, the Convention will elect five members of the State Board of Agriculture, to take the place of the following gentlemen whose terms expire in January: William Lang, of Troy; James B. Jamison, of Cadiz; J. G. Delano, of Chillicothe; R. P. Cannon, of Ames.

The members of the Board who hold over for another year, are as follows: James Buckingham, of Zanesville; L. B. Sprague, of Springfield; Simpson Harriott, of Canal Dover; John A. Warner, of Cincinnati.

The officers of the Board have concluded that it would be well to attach extra expense to call a special meeting for the purpose of arranging subjects for addresses and discussion. They are now engaged in doing this work.

RICKLEST-BEAUTIFUL.

There is nothing more to be admitted than a spirit that, also, adverse circumstances, and whistles gaily over troubles that conquer the timid. The Advertiser is a beautiful instance of this, as is demonstrated by the following article in that paper of last week:

Taking precedent, the result of this fall's election would indicate a grand Democratic victory in the Presidential contest of next year. In 1910 the States, and at the time of the election of 1910 the Whigs elected General Harrison by a tremendous majority, yet the Democratic party was elected in 1912, and the Whigs elected in 1916. In the States and Territories, the Whigs were elected in 1912, and the Whigs were elected in 1916. In the States and Territories, the Whigs were elected in 1912, and the Whigs were elected in 1916.

It did not care a continental Tammany the best-bred of the East, a wing of the party, in ruin. It whistles. It does not trouble the Advertiser that some of the Democratic party advocates a Railroad King for President, and that President; another batch declares that it is useless to nominate either a Republican or make no nomination; and another batch declares that it is useless to nominate either a Republican or make no nomination; and another batch declares that it is useless to nominate either a Republican or make no nomination.

Gov. Andrews used to say of the Democratic party that it was mounted on nothing and bound nowhere. That was in 1910. History is evidence, by repeating itself. Gazette.

NORWALK POSTOFFICE.

"H. V. B." Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette and a chronic grumbler and fault-finder, under date of November 19th, writes to that paper as follows:

Advices from Norfolk, O., represent the citizens of that place as greatly dissatisfied at the removal of Postmaster Cox, and also ignorant of the means which brought it about.

The brief of the case in the Postoffice Department shows that Hon. Charles Foster, member of Congress from the Ninth District, first wrote to the department recommending the appointment of Hiram Rose, and submitted letters and a petition asking for the change.

The petition purports to come from the "county officers and citizens," but the names of such officers or citizens do not appear from the brief. They are, however, on file with the papers in the case. The letters asking for the change were from the following persons: J. A. Dewey, John Cline, John B. Bates, John M. Foster, Frank Sears, Hon. W. O. Parker, ex-Mayor G. H. White, B. F. Smith, George C. Clark, and W. G. Wickham. Messrs. Dewey and Cline each signed two letters. The last one upon the brief is the following:

"Represents that Mr. Cox has been in the office for three months past, and at the instance of Hiram Rose, the Postmaster, is now in charge of the office. I desire that the change be made with little delay as possible."

From this brief the citizens of Norfolk will doubtless be able to see how the change was made. It is not, it is quite evident that, for further particulars they should address Mr. Foster. It appears to be simply one of those cases in which a member of Congress insisted upon a change, in order to discharge a portion of his political duties. The Postoffice Department had nothing to do with it. Mr. Cox, except as set forth by Mr. Foster, but to almost any change under our present law, it is simply necessary for a certain number of Congressmen from a certain district, or from a certain State, to insist upon a change, and that is the case in this instance.

It is with the last paragraph of the above that we have to do, as the first few words of the change made, the Postoffice Department is entirely uninvolved. In all the appointments suggested by Mr. Foster, he has been governed by the welfare of the service, and we have no right to complain. He has been governed by the welfare of the service, and we have no right to complain. He has been governed by the welfare of the service, and we have no right to complain.

"We have no scheme of our own to advance. But it is clear that extraordinary measures of some kind must be taken, and these should become at once the absorbing topic of political speculation. The South, we can say with assurance, is ready to follow a lead which promises an outlet to its difficulties. It proposes no dictation. Our friends in the North have been blase the way, and we will cheerfully yield up our political notions, whatever they may be."

THE CHOLERA.

That dread epidemic, the cholera, has reached New York. Although it was stayed, and will make no advance this winter, the epidemic may break forth with its deadliest force in the spring and summer of 1916. The epidemic was so that it may have been the winter to strike forth in the spring and summer of 1916. ITEMS IN GENERAL.

There were 250 deaths from cholera in Constantinople last week. The Grand Duke Alexis has arrived at New York.

Another mine explosion has occurred at Wigan, England, six lives being lost. The Army of the Cumberland has decided to erect a statue to Gen. Thomas in Washington.

There were 133 deaths from smallpox in Philadelphia last week, being an increase of 32 over the week before. Lovers of basketball cases, and their name is legion, will rejoice to know that the basketball crop for 1915 is reported to be an enormous one.

The President has received the United States District Attorney for the Middle District of Tennessee for unprofessional conduct.

The Lake Shore Road carried east, Friday last, from Toledo, 70,000 feet of lumber, 15,000 staves and 125,000 shingles.

The Chicago Grand Jury decides that the shooting of Col. Groverman furnishes no grounds for an indictment against any one.

Several of the Springfield burglars, who were raised up recently, have been sent to the beautiful stone residence in Columbus.

Telegraphic communication has been opened with Mexico by the extension of the Western Union Telegraph Company's lines to Matamoros.

It is estimated that upward of thirty thousand Southerners have settled in New York City since the downfall of the rebellion.

The York Post still continues to fight Grant. As Horace is a candidate for the Presidential nomination, the war against Grant is purely for love of country or conceit.

The French Minister at Rome informs the home government that the Pope informed him he would leave Rome when the Italian Parliament is convened in that city.

The stars who were engaged to play for Mr. McVicker's company, have been hastily advanced his capital with the intention to rebuild in Chicago. Joe Jefferson heads the list with $10,000.

Dan. Voorhes don't want to support a Republican for President on the Democratic ticket. He has been elected to the Senate, and he wants to support a Republican for President on the Democratic ticket.

The total amount of conscience money received at the Treasury Department, has been $12,147. The consciences of the fellows who have stolen from $100,000 to $1,000,000, or so, don't seem to "work them" badly.

Mrs. Barry of the Boston Children's Hospital is claimed as one of the most active Christian women in the world. During the past year, she has made 1,561 visits to the poor, blind and crippled, and has been instrumental in securing for them a total of $10,000.

A public meeting has been held in Cincinnati and the detective system of that city discussed. It is charged that the police are in collusion with the thieves and that property is lost, the detectives offer to find it if the owner will pay one-half the value. The money thus received is divided by the detectives and the thieves.

The Indian who lassoed the locomotive, and was thereby transported to the happy hunting grounds, has lately been the victim of a similar fate. After a two-free indulgence in "fire water," built his wigwam on the railroad, near St. Paul, Minn., but had most disastrous luck in attempting to stop the train.

A dispatch from Xenia, Ohio, says: The great liquor case, under the new State law, which has been occupying the attention of the Superior Court for the past year, is now being argued. A belief had gained ground very generally that the defeat of the "long" cause would result in a new election, and all that the elections were really accomplishing was to postpone the real issue to a later date.

The cholera has reached New York this month very much in the same way as in former years. In June, 1912, it broke out in that city soon after the arrival of an infected vessel. In December, 1914, it came again in the form of ships, and was confined to a time, as now, at quarantine. In 1915 and 1916 it was brought by German immigrants, and the same class of passengers are its usual victims.

The change of Judge Sepulveda to the grand jury on the Los Angeles riot is brief and so much to the point that it is worth mentioning in whole. The Judge says:

GENTLEMEN OF THE GRAND JURY: Lawlessness has again raised its head in this city. It is a disgrace to our community, and it is a disgrace to our country. It is a disgrace to our community, and it is a disgrace to our country. It is a disgrace to our community, and it is a disgrace to our country.
